Scully Scott Ranked 40th in U.S. on IP Today Listing

551 patents issued to Scully Scott clients in 2004

Garden City, NY -- Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, a leading Intellectual Property (IP) law firm, has announced that it is ranked 40th in the United States in the recently released listing of Intellectual Property Today magazine. This ranking was achieved by having 551 patents issued to their clients in the year 2004. Last year Scully Scott was ranked number 46. Scully Scott is in the top 10% of all patent firms surveyed nationwide and within the group of New York Metro-based law firms, including New York City, New Jersey and Connecticut, Scully Scott was ranked 7th for patents issued in 2004. Of the 551 patents issued for their clients in 2004, 530 were in the utility category and 21 were in the design category.

"We're very proud to be consistently ranked among the best intellectual property law firms in the nation," said Paul Esatto, Senior Partner at Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser. "Our experience and hard work pays great dividends for all of our clients and explains why they keep coming back to us with more patent work. We're particularly pleased to be highly ranked along with much larger New York metro area firms."
