Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser Names New Associate

Electrical Engineer Joins Patent Law Firm

Garden City, NY -- Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, a leading Intellectual Property Law firm, has announced that Bradley Marazas, an electrical engineer, has joined the firm as an Associate. Prior to joining Scully Scott, Marazas worked as an IP attorney at Reveo, Inc. Prior to that, he was a consultant and patent attorney at RFM Consulting, and a senior hardware design engineer for Textron Systems. He is a member of the IEEE, the Massachusetts Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.

"We're very happy that Bradley Marazas has joined Scully Scott," said Paul Esatto, Senior Partner at Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser. "His training and experience in Physics, Astronomy, and Electrical Engineering will further enhance our highly regarded practice in those areas." Esatto added, "Bradley is a welcome addition to our already strong team. He'll help us deliver highly technical services to our expanding client base."

Marazas will assist in the preparation and prosecution of patent applications in the areas of electrical engineering, computer science, physics, astronomy/optics, medical devices, and mechanical engineering. He also will provide opinions in the areas of designing, fabricating, programming, testing, and debugging various electronic devices and systems.

Marazas received his B.S. in Physics and B.S. in Astronomy from Pennsylvania State University, and his M.S. in Electrical Engineering from the University of Maryland. He received his J.D. from Suffolk University Law School.

Marazas is admitted to the Bar in Massachusetts and is registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office.
