Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser Names New Associate

Computer Scientist Joins Patent Law Firm

Garden City, NY -- Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, a leading Intellectual Property Law firm, has announced that Katherine Vieyra, a Mathematician and Computer Scientist, has joined the firm as an Associate. Prior to joining Scully Scott, Vieyra was an associate at D. Peter Hochberg LPA. Prior to that she worked as a software engineer for a variety of corporations, including Merrill Lynch, Alltel and the Cleveland Clinic Foundation, and was an adjunct professor of Computer Science at Cleveland State University. Vieyra is chair of the Copyright committee of the Cleveland Intellectual Property Law Association and a member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association.

"We're very pleased that Katherine Vieyra has joined Scully Scott," said Paul Esatto, Senior Partner at Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser. "Her training and experience in the fields of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science will add to our successful practice in those areas." Esatto added, "Vieyra is a strong addition to our already deep technology team, allowing us to add to our client base and meet the growing demand for our legal services."

Vieyra's practice is concentrated in the areas of preparation and prosecution of patent applications in electrical engineering, computer science, and diverse mechanical technologies.

Vieyra received her B.A. in Mathematical Sciences from Rice University, M.CIS from Cleveland State University, and J.D. from Case Western Reserve University.

Vieyra is admitted to the Bar in Ohio and is registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office.
