Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser Names New Associate

Mechanical Engineer Joins Patent Law Firm

Garden City, NY -- Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, a leading Intellectual Property Law firm, has announced that Michael Petrocelli, a Mechanical Engineer, has joined the firm as an Associate. Prior to joining Scully Scott, Petrocelli was a Systems and Test Engineer at Grumman Aircraft Systems.

"We're very pleased that Michael Petrocelli has joined Scully Scott," said Paul Esatto, Senior Partner at Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser. "His training and experience in the fields of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering will add to our successful practice in those areas." Esatto added, "Petrocelli is a strong addition to our already deep technology team, helping us meet the growing demand for our legal services."

Petrocelli's practice is concentrated in all aspects of patent procurement, with technical expertise in the fields of computers, semiconductors, microelectronics, electronic devices, business methods, medical devices, and mechanical devices. He also provides patentability and infringement opinions.

Petrocelli received his B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from New York Institute of Technology and his J.D. from New York Law School. He is currently enrolled in the Computer Science Masters program at Polytechnic University.

Petrocelli is admitted to the Connecticut State Bar; U.S. District Court, Connecticut, and Eastern District of N.Y.; and is registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.
