Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, P.C. Names New Partner

Counsel Richard Catania rejoins the ranks of partners

Garden City, NY -- Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, P.C., a leading Intellectual Property Law firm, has announced that Richard L. Catania, Counsel at the firm, has been named a partner. Catania had rejoined Scully Scott as Counsel, after having been a partner at the firm in the past. Prior to that, he had been an IP counsel at Pfizer Inc.

"We're very pleased that Richard has re-joined the ranks of Scully Scott partners," said Paul Esatto, Senior Partner at Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, P.C. "He has helped us attract new clients to the firm. Catania is a strong member of our deep technology team and he helps us meet the growing worldwide demand for our legal services."

Catania is experienced inter alia in the chemical, pharmaceutical, catalyst, mechanical, medical device/ophthalmics, packaging, and business method arts. His practice includes U.S. litigation and interference matters (Eastman Kodak v. Duracell, 48 USPQ2d 1061, Dist. Ct., DC 1998), licensing, acquisition, and other transactional work, due diligences, foreign oppositions, prosecution, and IP counseling.

Catania received his B.S. in Chemistry from Fordham University, his M.S. in Chemical Engineering from Manhattan College Graduate School of Engineering, and his J.D. (magna cum laude) from St. John's University School of Law.

Catania is licensed as an attorney-at-law in N.Y. State (2d Department) and is registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. He is also admitted to practice before the Eastern and Southern Federal District Courts in N.Y., as well as the Federal Circuit in Washington, DC.
