Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser Names New Associate

Biomedical Engineer Joins Patent Law Firm

Garden City, NY -- Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, a leading Intellectual Property Law firm, has announced that William Chung, a Biomedical Engineer, has joined the firm as an Associate. He has co-authored scientific papers in peer-reviewed journals, including "Optical Scatter Imaging Detects Mitochondrial Swelling in Living Tissue Slices" in Neuroimage and "Protection by Rapid Chemical Preconditioning of Stressed Hippocampal Slice" in Brain Research.

"We're very pleased that William Chung has joined Scully Scott," said Peter Bernstein, Partner at Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser. "His training and experience in the fields of Biomedical and Electrical Engineering will add to our successful practice in those areas." Bernstein added, "Chung is a strong addition to our already deep technology team, allowing us to grow our client base and meet the growing demand for our legal services."

Chung will practice in all aspects of the preparation and prosecution of patent applications relating to electronic and electromechanical devices, medical devices, electromagnetic technologies, and optical devices.

Chung received his B.S. in Biomedical Engineering with a Concentration in Electrical Engineering from Johns Hopkins University. He received his J.D. from St. John's University.

Chung is admitted to the New York Bar and is registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office.
