Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser Names New Associate

Electrical Engineer Wendell Peete Joins Firm as Patent Attorney

Garden City, NY -- Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, a leading Intellectual Property Law firm, has announced that Wendell Peete, an electrical engineer, has joined the firm as a patent attorney. Prior to joining Scully Scott, Peete was a patent attorney at an Atlanta-based firm. Before that he was a patent examiner at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

"We're very pleased to have Wendell Peete join Scully Scott," said Paul Esatto, Senior Partner at Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser. "His training and experience in computers and electrical engineering will enhance our Intellectual Property practice in those areas." Esatto added, "And, Wendell's skills will complement our deep team of technology experts -- helping us to grow our firm and meet the expanding demand for our legal services."

Peete will assist in preparing and prosecuting U.S. and international patent applications for technologies relating to computer hardware and software, telecommunications, image processing, data compression, general electronics and systems, mechanical devices, Internet applications, wireless telecommunication devices, medical devices and optical devices.

Peete earned a B.S. in Electrical Engineering, at North Carolina A&T State University, and a J.D. at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Peete is admitted to practice law in North Carolina and is registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.
