Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser Names New Partner

Keith Weltsch Promoted at Patent Law Firm

Garden City, NY -- Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser, a leading Intellectual Property Law firm, has announced that Keith Weltsch has been named partner at the firm. He has been an Associate at the firm. Prior to joining Scully Scott, he was a Trademark Examining Attorney at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

"We're very pleased that Keith Weltsch has joined the ranks of the firms partners," said Peter Bernstein, Partner at Scully, Scott, Murphy & Presser. "Our firm was founded more than 35 years ago and periodically we've selectively added new partners to give us new energy and drive. Keith's skills and experience -- along with the rest of our deep team of technology experts -- will contribute to our continued growth and helping to satisfy the increased demand for our services."

Weltsch's practice is concentrated in the areas of U.S. and foreign trademark prosecution and clearance. He is experienced in oppositions and cancellations before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, as well as in federal trademark litigation matters. Weltsch is also experienced in the copyright registration, enforcement and counseling fields. He has significant knowledge of the rapidly expanding and changing domain name laws, as well as the important legal interplay between domain names and trademarks.

Weltsch is a resident of Plainview NY. He received his B.A. in History from Pennsylvania State University and graduated with honors and with distinction, Phi Beta Kappa. He received his J.D. from George Washington University.

Weltsch is admitted to practice in New York and the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York and District of Columbia, and is a member of AIPLA and INTA.
